Dear Ian

When I signed up to your business coaching; I was looking for someone to put some focus in what I was doing. I am very good at running around and getting loads of things done, the problem was; I never really had a grip about what I was actually doing it all for AND it all seemed to just be "getting me by..."

The coaching with you actually gave me so much more than just focus.

When we first started (less than a year ago) I was a one-man band just about getting by with work with my existing client base and personally working 17 hours a day, 6 days a week. Now we are a team of 5 people, we are achieving so much more in less time and now we have strategies to actually GAIN more clients, and more importantly gain the clients we WANT to move the business forward.

I am confident that this success will continue as my relationship with you continues, and we are very optimistic and excited about the new learning and achievements that 2009 will bring.

Many thanks
